

School Trips around Ojcowski National Park

School trips with a tourist guide along the Ojcow National Park

Prehistory and History of the Prądnik Valley

This route leads the most beautiful trail of the Ojcow National Park - the nature trail "Dark Cave - Mount Trenches". During the trip, we will see, in addition to Dark Cave and one of the most valuable and oldest archaeological sites in Poland, the picturesque Ruins of the King Casimir Castle in Ojców and the mysterious remains of an early medieval settlement on Mount Trenches. Following this route, we will see the most beautiful views of the Prądnik Valley from the rock vantage points hovering among the forests, at an altitude above 100 meters above the Prądnik River flowing in the valley.

In the price of this route:

- entrance tickets: Dark Cave + Ruins of the King Casimir Castle in Ojców
- a tourist guide in Polish on the whole route of sightseeing

We recommend additionally, at the end of the school trip, a horse-drawn carriage ride with a bonfire and sausages and tea.
