

School Trips around Ojcowski National Park

School trips with a tourist guide along the Ojcow National Park

Trail of the January Uprising in 1863

We invite you to take a trip along the route that leads through the battlefields and the places of skirmishes of the January insurgents that took place in the Prądnik Valley. We will meet at the Castle in Pieskowa Skała, where the insurgents and Russian troops fought. After visiting the castle from this place, we will go to the nearby town of Skała to start the walk along the old road towards the forested slopes of the Prądnik Valley, passing subsequent fighting places, the choleric cemetery and then go down the "wooden road" with a guide to Ojców - a place where 2,000 insurgents camped before setting off in funk.

Included in the price of this tour:

- entrance tickets to the Castle in Pieskowa Skała (courtyards and the main exhibition - the courtyards are guided, center individually), guide service in Polish for the duration of the trip.

The price does not include:

- transport, parking fees. It is possible to organize meals and additional attractions.

Additional options:
