

Tours for organized adult groups in Ojcow National Park

Trips for organized groups of adults are led by tourist guides through tourist routes designated by the management of the Ojcow National Park

Prehistory and History of the Prądnik Valley

This route leads the most beautiful trail of the Ojcowski National Park - the cognitive path "Dark Cave - Mount Trenches". During the trip, we will see, in addition to Ciemna Cave and one of the most valuable and oldest archaeological sites in Poland, the picturesque Ruins of Kazimierz Castle in Ojcow and the mysterious remains of an early medieval settlement on Mount Trenches. Following this route, we will see the most beautiful views of the Prądnik Valley from protruding rocks hovering among forests, at an altitude exceeding 100 meters above the Prądnik River flowing in the valley.

In the price of this route:

- entrance tickets: Ciemna Cave + Ruins of Kazimierzowski Castle
