

Tours for organized adult groups in Ojcow National Park

Trips for organized groups of adults are led by tourist guides through tourist routes designated by the management of the Ojcow National Park

Stopped in Time

The route will run through places where we can feel as if we have been transferred in time into ancient times ...

At the beginning we will go to the Castle in Pieskowa Skala (mention of its origin dates back to the 14th century - we will visit the castle from the outside), then the route leads to Grodzisk, where we can see the Hermitage of Bl. Salomei (XVII century), then we will go to the Młynarska settlement Boronówka (a new tourist attraction) where we have the opportunity to see how the work in the Mill looked like in the 19th century - flour production as well as the miller's life (the very history of the mill comes from the 15th century). Next, we will go to Ojcow where we will see the ruins of Kazimierzowski Castle (14th century), during the trip we will see the Chapel on the Water (sacred object from the beginning of the 20th century). Duration: approx. 4.5 hours

In the price of this route:

- entrance tickets to the Boronówka Mine and the Ruins of the Castle in Ojcow
- guide service in Polish for the duration of the trip.

The price does not include: transport, parking fees. It is possible to organize meals and additional attractions.
