

School Trips around Ojcowski National Park

School trips with a tourist guide along the Ojcow National Park

Following the heroes of the film - With Fire and Sword

You may not know it, but many scenes for the movie "With Fire and Sword" were filmed in the Ojców National Park! We will follow them, which means that we will visit unique places such as the Castle in Pieskowa Skała, the Cow Cave, the Ciasne Skałki Gorge behind the Krakowska Gate and, of course, the Bat Cave.

Bat Cave. In 1998, the sequence of the film "With Fire and Sword" was filmed in the cave chambers - the scene of the kidnapping of Helena in Czarcim Ravine.

Krowia Cave - The name of the shelter comes from the fact that in the 19th century it was said that cows and sheep were kept there, grazed on the surrounding pastures of the Prądnik Valley. A scene with Horpyna in the film Fire and Sword was also filmed in this shelter. The effect of the waterfall flowing down the walls was achieved by pouring water over the rock from the hose of a fire engine.

Castle in Pieskowa Skała - Many Polish films use this treasure of Małopolska. The beauty of Pieskowa Skała was appreciated by Jerzy Hoffman, who realized individual scenes of his trilogy there. The inner courtyard of the castle surrounded by arcades was one of the places shown in the movie "With Fire and Sword". It is there that Jan Skrzetuski (Michał Żebrowski) meets Michał Wołodyjowski (Zbigniew Zamachowski) and releases Bohun (Aleksander Domogarow) in the final scene of the film.
